

Keep It

Júlia Lins, 2014

Today I started my day
The day I decided to stay

The sun was at ease and to shine
The birds sang and my life
Began to wake up
Alive and clear
My thoughts are bitter
But still I'm here

Sit, close, wipe, show
Sit, close, begin
To pour...

Everything as to mess to forgive
Is divine, it is pure, it's a bliss

The way the wind carries on
The way our smiles torn

In this existence
Here are we
United but blindness
Stop's us from seeing

That this is the moment
That this is the life
It's for a few seconds
So, please, why don't you shine?
Why don't you shine?
